

IEDP Registered Member Information

Name	Kate Hinton	Date of Registration	October 2013	Valid until	October 2016
Current role	Independent trainer and consultant in Equality, Diversity and Human Rights carrying out training, research and consultancy. IEDP Board Member (Lead on Accreditation), Trainer and Assessor for the UNICEF Rights Respecting School Award, part-time tutor at Newcastle University, member of the Children and Young People's Services Equality Network.
Areas of expertise	Main areas of expertise are <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Planning and delivering bespoke training in equality and diversity, covering the Equality Act 2010 ▪ Assessing and strengthening the competence and effectiveness of individual equality and diversity practitioners ▪ Promoting equality, diversity and human rights in the field of education and schools ▪ Recognising and supporting good practice, especially in local authorities and schools ▪ Carrying out evaluation and research from both current practice and documentary evidence.
Brief biography	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Taught in comprehensive schools in London 1966-71, 1976-84 ▪ Advisory Teacher in Buckingham and Berkshire 1971 - 74 ▪ Research fellow with the higher education project 'Science in a Social Context' 1975-76 ▪ Science Adviser for Newcastle Local Education Authority 1984-92 ▪ Regional Adviser for Equal Opportunities, Strathclyde Regional Council 1992-95 ▪ General Inspector with responsibility for Science, Durham Local Authority 1995-2004 ▪ Inspector for Equality and Diversity, Durham Local Authority 2004-08 ▪ Working independently 2008 -present
Qualifications	BSc University of Leeds 1965 Diploma in Social Administration London School of Economics 1966 MA Education University of Sussex 1981
Examples of recent work	Co-directing, jointly with Sheffield Hallam University, research project into the role of Local Authorities in the effective implementation of the Equality Act 2010 in schools. Devised programme of equality and diversity activities for Secondary PGCE students at Newcastle University Workshop with Primary PGCE students at Newcastle University on Tackling Racism and Homophobia in Primary Schools. Support and assessment of schools for the UNICEF Rights Respecting School Award. Joint author of articles about the Equality Act 2010 published in Race Equality Teaching, Spring 2012.
Geographical area covered	Based in NE England, available mainly in the North and London but will travel country wide.
Contact details	Email: katehinton.equalities@yahoo.co.uk		Tel. 07702 564877		