The professional body of equality & diversity practitioners

What does being a diverse employer mean?

How to put Equality and Diversity proactively into the workplace - initiatives that have worked

As you can see from the title, the IEDP's forthcoming seminar has an employment theme. We have asked three keynote speakers about how they have advanced equality, diversity and inclusion within their organisations, focusing on practical strategies that have been successful. This will be followed by a panel discussion with questions from attendees. The panel discussion concludes the seminar, which will be followed by a short Annual General Meeting. Non-members are welcome to stay on for this, but will not be entitled to vote.
